Product description

Is this the turnaround for you, or are you anyway a passionate coffee lover? If you are second, than of course you appreciate that this coffee is rar and special since it is from Cuba. You appreciate, that it is superior, that even the mountain range where it comes from is named Sierra Maestra and that it is home to Cubas "crown" Pico Turquino.

But if you are the other one, the person making its first steps towards great coffee, swiching from green or black tea, or even from cocoa milk, you will have "that" moment.
Cuba Serrano Lavado "SL" will be your crucial aspect, when it comes down to understanding why a cup of coffee brings so much joy.
Its rich but also soft aroma with almost no acidity, unfolds in a perfect full body.

Cuban Coffee from Sierra Maestra is so treasured, that UNESCO believes that it belongs on the world heritage list.

Cupping notes: brazil nut, cocoa, dark chocolate
